VOLUME XXV

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY JULY 18, 1922.

NUMBER 39

Died at Cane Valley.

Last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. Chapman B. Dohoney, who was sixty-five years old, died at his home in Cane Valley. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dohoney, who have been dead many years. The deceased died where he was born and reared, but for the last fifteen years he had lived in Texas. He was a fairly good business man and had many friends who will regret to hear of his death. He had been afflicted for some time with a chronic trouble. He received the attention of the best physicians and friends were constantly at his bedside, but skill and medicine brought no relief. He was a man who will be greatly missed, and one whose place will be hard to fill. The funeral services were held Friday, attended by the entire community. Our information is that he was a devout member of the Christian church. This paper extends its condolence to all the bereaved.

We noticed in Columbia, last Tuesday, a bright little boy on crutches. There was something in his manner that attracted our attention, and we stopped and asked him his name. "Elwood Rosenbaum," said the boy. "What is the cause of you being on crutches?" we asked. Quickly he responded, "I have tuberculosis of the bone." It would be a great blessing if that boy could be cured. He has in him the making of a man, and if he could be restored to health and live to be grown he would make a dust in the world. He has the gray matter in his head to do it. His parents should furnish him the best of books. We feel sure that he would use them. Crippled though he is, he can become a useful man if he lives.

Good Farm for Sale.

I have decided to sell my farm. It contains 105 acres. It is in a good state of cultivation and a well producing farm. On it is a good dwelling, all necessary outbuildings, and a good barn. It is in a splendid neighborhood, convenient to churches and school.

Special Service.

Dr. Charles W. Welch, pastor of the Fourth Avenue church, at Louisville, Kentucky, will begin a series of Evangelistic services at the Presbyterian church the fourth Sunday in this month. Dr. Welch is a man of wide reputation, not only in Kentucky, but in many other states. We are very fortunate to have such an able man come to us. We feel that we will be greatly helped through his preaching and that the town and surrounding country will be lifted into a higher spiritual atmosphere.

We desire the co-operation of all denominations in town. Let us all unite in making this a series of helpful and successful services.

The case of the State against Zach and Golden Bardin, charged with killing John Henry Sneed, was continued until the next term of circuit court, at which time a motion for a change of venue will be presented. The next term of court will open Wednesday after the November election. The witnesses on both sides were recognized to be in Court on that day.

Rev. Carson Taylor will preach at the Baptist Church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Jamestown, the Unbeaten Team will be here, Thursday at the Fair Grounds at 3:30 P. M. Jamestown defeated Greensburg.

Mrs. Guy Neil gave on her lawn, last Monday night, a moonlight picnic in honor of Misses Louise Rowe and Travis Louthach, of Oklahoma. About sixty persons put in an appearance and the hours were most delightfully spent.

False Report.

Last Friday morning two detectives of Louisville, arrived in Columbia to investigate four automobiles said to have come from Louisville, and sold or traded to parties in this town by Count Stults and Herman Barnett, who are well-known in Columbia and who are in charge of two different garages in the city. The detectives were instructed to investigate four machines in this place. Mr. St. Clair, one of the detectives, informed the News that they had made a thorough investigation of the automobiles in question and found that the owners had rightfully acquired them, showing that Mr. Barnett and Mr. Stults were doing a legitimate business. Mr. Stults was born and reared here and is a son of Mr. T. R. Stults and Mr. Barnett married one of Columbia's best young ladies, and he stands high in this place, and it is not believed by anyone in this community that either of the gentlemen would dispose of a car that had not been rightfully acquired. The people of Columbia generally did not believe the report when it was first started.

Dr. S. P. Miller Health Officer.

Dear Doctor:
Acting upon the authority conferred upon it by law, the State Board of Health calls your attention to a widespread epidemic of rabies in the State. From counties in almost every section of the State men, women and children have been bitten by mad dogs and livestock has been similarly infected and destroyed.

In order to prevent a widespread epidemic of this very dangerous disease, this Board request you to immediately issue such instructions to your subordinates as will cause them to destroy, as painlessly as possible, all stray dogs found running at large in any part of your jurisdiction. There are now more than sixty individuals taking the treatment for bites from rabid animals at the office of this Board in Louisville and more than twice as many other persons are being treated by their physicians at home. This is wholly unnecessary expense and burden to our people and prompt action in ridding every section of stray dogs will immediately reduce the danger.

All dogs should be considered stray dogs which are at large unmuzzled for the next sixty days after publication of this notice in local papers.

Given under our hands and seal of the State Board at Louisville this July 14, 1922.

L. T. McMurry,
President State Board of Health.
A. T. McCormack,
Secretary.

The above is self explanatory. I hereby warn every dog owner either to muzzle, tie or confine all dogs for a period of sixty days, so that we may be able to stamp this out, and I hereby appoint every citizen in Adair county to help carry this into effect and to kill every dog found running at large.

C. G. Jeffries,
Judge of Adair County Court.

Mr. Edward B. Woodridge, a young man, well known about Columbia, was married last Sunday week to Miss Vera C. Chaney, whose parents live a short distance East of this place.

Mr. Albin Murray is having a handsome cottage erected in the North end of town, near L. W. Bennett's residence. It will be for sale or for rent.

An Enjoyable Day.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lowe, Mr. Forest Lowe and the writer were hospitably entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Murrell. It was a great treat to be in this home which is supplied with everything that makes life worth living. At the noon hour a most sumptuous dinner was spread, prepared by Mrs. Murrell, who is an expert in culinary affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Murrell, who live in the home, vied with their parents in making it a day of pleasure, one that will not soon be forgotten by those who not only enjoyed the table food, but the fine luscious apples presented on their departure.

Notice.

To All Overseers and Road hands:

Our county roads all over the county are getting in a deplorable condition. I have been patient with you on account of the people being behind with their crops; but now your crops are all practically taken care of and I must insist that the roads be taken care of. I therefore warn every Overseer and every able-bodied man in the road age to get busy, and avoid trouble, for every person that fails to put his time in shall be fined and work his time out under the Jailor, F. W. Miller, on the rock pile in front of the jail. Now, this is final and applies to all. If you are worth ten thousand dollars you will go on the rock pile as same as the man who is not worth a penny. It makes no difference who you are related to, or what your politics are or who you voted for or what your religion is, this applies positively to all.

C. G. Jeffries,
Judge of Adair County Court.

An Announcement.

Announcement of a special service for the aged was made from the pulpit of the Church of Christ, last Sunday evening.

In this service the minister will direct his remarks to those who are beginning to feel the weight of time or infirmity and who suffer because of a mistaken notion that their days of usefulness are over or are rapidly coming to a close.

For these this minister has a special message and he invites the general public to co-operate in bringing to the service all the aged who are able to attend.

The subject will be, "Lights and Shadows" and the service will take place Sunday morning, July 23.

The evening service for the same Sunday has been dismissed and the minister and the people will join the Presbyterian brethren in their special meeting which open upon that date.

Tuesday evening, July 25, minister J. I. Wheeler will begin a series of special meetings with the Christian Church of Glenville and will continue with them until Friday evening, Aug. 4th.

The minister of the Church of Christ feels constrained to remark that there is one way in which the people of Columbia might enhance the attractiveness of their beautiful and thriving little town.

This can easily be accomplished by filling every meeting house with pious worshippers on Sunday.

Our greatest need is not more people to fill vacant residences but more people to fill our vacant pews.

Not better lights for our homes but more light from Christian lives.

Not more people to travel over our streets and sidewalks but more people to follow the "straight and narrow way."

Not better schools but more pupils of the Great Teacher who reveals the way to a better life.

In common with all churches and ministers of the town, we invite you to worship with us.

J. I. Wheeler.

Judgment for $250.

The jury in the case of Lizzie Arnold against T. A. Sheridan, brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $250.

This suit was for $2,950 and was brought by John Arnold, the father of the girl, who appears to be about eight years old, and who was considerably hurt in an accident which occurred on the pike, near Cane Valley, last January.

Mr. Sheridan was en route, in his automobile, from Campbellsville to Columbia, and near the residence of Mr. Sherrod Murrell he passed a Mrs. Watson and this little girl in a buggy. It was claimed by the plaintiff that the car was running at a rapid gait; that the horse to the buggy became scared, threw out the occupants, and the little girl considerably hurt. Mr. Sheridan claimed that he was not at fault and that his car was not going at a rate faster than 15 miles an hour. The case will likely be appealed. Montgomery & Montgomery and Gordon Montgomery represented the plaintiff. L. C. Winfrey and a Mr. Smythe, of Cincinnati, the defendant.

All ex-United States soldiers can have their discharges recorded in the Adair county clerk's office free of charge, if you want your record kept bring in your discharge.

Co-Operative Tobacco Warehouse for Adair County Assured.

The Burley Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Association has agreed to establish a receiving house at Columbia, provided local people would secure the ground and erect the building according to plans and specification to be furnished by the Association. In order to carry out this arrangement and to show their interest in the Co-Operative movement, the business people of Columbia have agreed to furnish the necessary funds with which to buy the lot and erect the building and turn it over to the Association at actual cost, to be paid for in two years without interest.

A representative of the Association will be in Columbia this week to complete the arrangement for starting work on the building as soon as the farmers sign their tobacco.

This action on the part of the business people is very commendable and should convince the tobacco growers that they are willing to do everything possible to aid them in this movement.

Every grower in the county should get in touch with the Committee at once and sign a contract.

Vote for Hobson L. James.

Last year Judge McCandless wanted a Circuit Judgeship. He was nominated and elected for a term of six years. Now he is not satisfied, and is asking the Democrats to give him an Appellate Judgeship. He would then resign and permit Gov. Morrow to appoint a Republican to succeed him as Circuit Judge. Do you favor this? If not, you should support H. L. James for Appellate Judge.

A Card.

The following expression was embodied in a private letter to Mr. J. C. Strange, from Rice, Texas:

"If I had the language at my command would express to you, and all the good people of Columbia, who were so loving, faithful and thoughtful during the last illness and burial of my father, my sincere gratitude and appreciation. I am sure I never saw a finer Christian spirit manifested, and while I knew only a few of the people who were so good, I want them all to know that I, as well as the other members of the family deeply appreciate what they did."

Thrown From a Mule.

Late last Tuesday afternoon Peyton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Loy, while returning from the flouring mill, met with a very frightful accident. Near the ice-house, back of Sam Lewis' place of business, his mule became scared and threw him to the ground. His head struck a hard substance and a severe gash was cut. Dr. Hindman dressed the wound and the boy was sent home. Wednesday morning he was reported quite sick.
